

The consolidation of the PUBLIC airwaves into the controlling interests of a few is anti-democratic, and very un-American! I would like to see more input on the proposed changes from people throughout the country. The lack of diversity and local programming is appalling in many areas of the country, and I for one, would like to see the media conglomerates shrunk in size, not expanded. Sincerely, Roger Stow